

Sustainability Networking Forum and Reception

- Would you like to talk to executives about a career related to sustainability? or
- Would you like to talk to students & alumni who have “green skills?”

Network with executives from organizations (such as Bayer and UPMC) interested in recruiting people with green skills and a sustainability mindset!

Wednesday, March 24th

3:00—5:45 p.m.

Power Center Ballroom

The program will kick off with a brief presentation by Lou Astorino, the CEO of the Astorino architectural firm, designer of green buildings.

Open to all area students and alumni!
